SJR111

ENROLLED, SJR111,

URGING LOCAL SCHOOL SYSTEMS AND LOCAL GOVERNMENTAL ENTITIES WHOSE BUILDINGS WERE DAMAGED OR DESTROYED BY THE RECENT TORNADOES TO HIRE OR USE LOCAL AND IN-STATE CONTRACTORS TO REBUILD OR REPAIR THOSE BUILDINGS.

WHEREAS, the economy of the areas of this State was adversely affected by the recent tornadoes; and

WHEREAS, buildings and other structures owned by local school systems and local governmental entities were damaged or destroyed by the tornadoes; and

WHEREAS, Alabamians pay taxes to make it possible to repair the buildings and other structures owned by local systems and local governmental entities that were damaged or destroyed by the tornadoes; and

WHEREAS, it would be positive for the morale of the residents adversely affected by the tornadoes as well as the local economy if, to the extent possible, local school systems and local governmental entities hire or use local and in-state contractors to rebuild or repair buildings damaged or destroyed by the tornadoes; and
WHEREAS, Alabama has local and in-state contractors who are well-trained and who have the ability to rebuild or repair buildings damaged or destroyed by the tornadoes; now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That this Legislature strongly urges, and indeed expects to the extent possible that local school systems and local governmental entities hire or use local and in-state contractors to rebuild or repair buildings that were damaged or destroyed by the tornadoes.
