HB565
135713-3
By Representatives Rich and Long (N & P) (Constitutional Amendment)
RFD: Local Legislation
First Read: 20-MAR-12
ENROLLED, An Act,

To propose an amendment to the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, to provide that the Legislature, by local law, may provide further for the election of the members of the Marshall County Board of Education and for the operation of the board.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

Section 1. The following amendment to the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, is proposed and shall become valid as a part of the Constitution when all requirements of this act are fulfilled:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT

The Legislature, by local law, from time to time may provide for the election of the members of the Marshall County Board of Education and may provide further for the operation of the board. Such local act or acts may include, but are not limited to, providing for termination of the terms of members of the existing county board of education; vacancies; the composition of the county board of education; initial and succeeding terms of office, including staggered terms; and qualifications, powers, duties, responsibilities, and compensation of the board and board members.

Section 2. An election upon the proposed amendment shall be held in accordance with Amendment 555 to the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, now appearing as Section 284.01 of the Official Recompilation of the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, as amended, and the election laws of this state.

Section 3. The appropriate election official shall assign a ballot number for the proposed constitutional amendment on the election ballot and shall set forth the following description of the substance or subject matter of the proposed constitutional amendment:

"Relating to Marshall County, proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, to provide that the Legislature, by local law, may further provide for the election of the members of the Marshall County Board of Education and the operation of the board.

"Proposed by Act _____"

This description shall be followed by the following language:
